TROUBLE EXPECTED.

Gigantic Strike of Railroad Employees Feared.

EASTERN MEN VERY UNEASY.

They Believe That Engineers, Firemen, Trainmen and Switchmen on Roads Running Into Chicago Will Make Trouble and Interfere With World's Fair Travel.

NEW YORK, May 2.—Railroad employees in and near New York are uneasy and much worried over the probable action of the engineers, firemen, trainmen and switchmen on the roads running into Chicago. There is a widespread belief among railroad employees in the east that the western railroad men will make trouble soon after the world's fair is in good running order. While this belief has been gaining ground in the east many railroad men have discredited all rumors of possible trouble.

All doubts of the probability of serious and widespread railroad strikes soon after the opening of the fair have faded away since the decisions of Judges Taft and Ricks in the conspiracy and contempt proceedings in the United States courts against the striking engineers on the Toledo, Ann Arbor and North Michigan railroad. These decisions, affecting the right of engineers and firemen to quit work, have stirred up the brotherhood engineers all over the country, and it is understood that the word has been passed to all the members of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers to be ready to "get even" with certain railroads at the time when they will need all the men they can get.

It is, of course, understood what constitutes "getting even." While there has been no public announcement to this effect, brotherhood engineers and firemen by their statements to reporters and others show their positions exactly.

A reporter who visited the great yards of the Erie, Pennsylvania and Reading in Jersey City, found many railroad employees who were willing to talk on the subject of a "world's fair strike." The following statement was made by a prominent railroad employee who was seen by a reporter in the Erie yards:

"Railroad men throughout the east are very uneasy over the situation just now with regard to a possible 'world's fair strike' within the next few weeks. And we are not uneasy without good reason. The trouble that began on the little Ann Arbor road a short time ago and its recent developments in the federal courts are having an effect on railroad employees, and especially brotherhood engineers all over the United States. It has been the principal topic of discussion in the lodgeroom and the roundhouse, and the results of this discussion will surely be seen later. We engineers are a conservative body of men here in the east.

"Our western brothers are quicker to act, more impulsive. Consequently, what we fear most just now is some hasty, ill-considered action by them. We also fear the switchmen; they may go out at any time without a moment's warning. They are, as a rule, men without families, who wander about from one railroad city to another. The principal danger just at present is from these men. They have many grievances. We in the east are apprehensive lest some hasty action in the west either by our brothers or by the railroad companies; either will precipitate a bitter struggle.

"I know that I voice the sentiments of the brotherhood men when I tell you that we hope that there will be no trouble during the world's fair. On the other hand, there are wrongs to be righted, and it is only natural that a favorable opportunity should be embraced for presenting demands. Some important meetings of brotherhood engineers and firemen in Jersey City and Greenville will be held during the coming week."

NEW POSTMASTERS.

Nearly One Hundred Appointed in the Fourth Class.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—The total number of fourth class postmasters appointed yesterday was 94. Of this number 77 were to fill vacancies caused by resignations or deaths. D. H. Pike was the only Ohio man who received an appointment. He will take charge of the postoffice at Marquand, Muskingum county, vice H. C. Marquand resigned. Those appointed in Indiana and Kentucky were as follows:

Indiana—Avon, Hendricks county, William Taylor; Jefferson county, Michael Oehler; Hector, Jay county, A. Jellison; Lecta, Scott county, J. C. Richey; New Mount Pleasant, Jay county, P. N. Craig; Randolph, Randolph county, Margaret M. Wall; Sparksville, Jackson county, S. D. Hill; Summitville, Madison county, E. E. Black.

Kentucky—Boyd, Harrison county, J. T. Cannon; Cairo, Henderson county, C. L. Sights; Cicero, Woodford county, E. N. Berryman; Crescent, Boone county, R. M. Rice; Elmville, Franklin county, J. C. Bridges; King Mills, Henderson county, Thomas Williams; Morning View, Kenton county, A. R. Taylor; Muir, Fayette county, B. L. May; Swallowfield, Franklin county, W. H. Poe; Pewee Valley, Oldham county, W. H. Jurev; St. John's Asylum, Kenton county, J. C. Hamer; Bealsville, Montgomery county, F. M. Griffith; Breathsville, Washington county, T. J. Warfield; Kingston, Somerset county, L. M. Milbourne; Mount Vernon, Somerset county, W. B. Renshaw; Woodstock, Howard county, David Donovan.

MINERS' STRIKE.

The One in Ohio Believed Will Be of Short Duration.

COLUMBUS, O., May 2.—Reports from the various mining districts show that the strike among the Ohio miners is general. An impression prevails in this city that the coal miners' strike will be of short duration. Men who are best informed predict that it will be. Some of the leading operators acknowledge the justice of the miners' demands and are willing to concede them, among them being J. S. Morton, whose mines are in the Sunday Creek valley, W. P. Rend of the same locality, and Slater of Nelsonville. H. B. Turney of Shawnee and Corning and H. L. Chapman of Jackson county are holding out against the increase asked, but it is believed they will sooner or later give in and the strike be brought to an end.

Governor McKinley has sent a telegram to Hon. Charles Foster suggesting that Foster and Bishop, who were appointed members of the state board of arbitration have a meeting and select the third member. The operators have refused to consider the arbitration plan so far, but Governor McKinley thinks best to have the state arbitrators in readiness.

ONE KILLED AND THREE INJURED.

Funeral Party Ran Into by a Passenger Train.

TOLEDO, May 2.—At the Monroe street crossing of the Lake Shore railroad, a passenger train ran into a funeral party late yesterday afternoon. Mrs. M. J. Bork was killed and Mrs. A. Friedlander, Mrs. Matthew Bartlett and Mrs. George F. Fish were seriously injured. It is thought Mrs. Friedlander can not live.

The ladies were members of a lodge of Daughters of Rebekah, who had been attending the obsequies of a sister member. Returning home they boarded an electric car, and at the Monroe crossing, fearing a collision between the approaching train and the car, they jumped off and while doing so were struck by the train. The streetcar barely escaped demolition.

Deserted Husband Kills Himself.

NEW ALBANY, Ind., May 2.—William C. Frederick, 37 years old, committed suicide by sending a bullet through his heart, in his sleeping room in Feick's hall, in this city. Last week his wife, to whom he was married last December, left him because she desired to live in a cottage instead of rented apartments. He became despondent, and, although he made no threats of killing himself, he made arrangements to place his two daughters by a former marriage with relatives. Shortly after arising he fired the shot and died instantly.

A Narrow Escape.

ROSEVILLE, O., May 2.—The company store at the Union coal mines, near here, was burned yesterday morning about 4 o'clock. Lew Matthews and family occupied part of the building, and had barely time to escape, leaving their clothing. Mrs. Matthews wrapped a quilt about her and ran for her life. Both dwelling and store are a total loss. The fire was caused by a defective flue.

Singular Attack of Insanity.

WILKINSON, Ind., May 2.—John Bridges, a bright, intelligent young man of excellent habits, went insane yesterday, requiring six to eight men to restrain him. Late Saturday he had indulged in wrestling with associates, after which he passed where he was found in a melancholy mood, and a very violent paroxysm of madness soon developed. Evidence points to poison.

Crazy on Columbian Stamps.

RICHMOND, Ind., May 2.—Jonathan Stannhope, a wealthy farmer, intends to paper his house with Columbian stamps. The other day he gave Postmaster Jenkinson a check for $3,800 and asked for stamps to that amount. His son arrived yesterday and says his father is undoubtedly daff and that he will not allow him to throw away his wealth in that manner.

Arkansas River Over Its Banks.

LITTLE ROCK, May 2.—The Arkansas river is over its banks in North Little Rock and is rising rapidly. Six inches of rain fell at Fort Smith from April 28 to 7 p. m., last night. Four inches fell in this city yesterday and four inches at Russellville. Grave apprehensions are felt that the flood will exceed that of last year.

Young Lady's Body Found.

POINT PLEASANT, W. Va., May 2.—While the crew of the Samuel Miller were attending her fleet at the landing they discovered the body of Miss Emma Garland caught on the breast line. She was towed ashore and Coroner Barbee summoned, who pronounced it intentional suicide, caused by sickness.

Triple Drowning.

KNOXVILLE, May 2.—A triple drowning occurred in the Molachucky river, near Greenville. Six young men were out in a pleasure boat, when the boat capsized. All were thrown into the water, and three brothers, Andrew, Thomas and Nick Jones, were drowned. Their bodies have been recovered.

Whisky Caused It.

CLARKSVILLE, Tenn., May 2.—Whisky was at the bottom of a fatal stabbing at Dover, near here, yesterday. Morgan Edwards and Harvey Miller, each aged 18, bosom friends, quarreled. Miller plunged a knife several times into Edwards' heart, causing instant death. Miller is in jail prostrated.

Robbed by Highwaymen.

GREENSBORO, Ind., May 2.—At 12:10 in the morning John Linville, electrician at the electric light powerhouse, was held up by two footpads and relieved of $23 in money and a fine gold watch while on his way home. The highwaymen made good their escape.

RAIN EVERYWHERE.

Floods All Over the Ohio Valley.

GREAT DAMAGE ALREADY DONE.

Taking All In All, the Present Rainy Season Has Been the Most Destructive One in Fifteen Years—It Has Drowned Three-Fourths of the Wheat in Three States—Grave Fears for the Future.

CINCINNATI, May 2.—From northern Indiana to southern Tennessee, from central Pennsylvania to western Illinois, 10 years of rainy weather has failed to conjure up a situation like the present. Today there is not one acre of ground in all the central states but what contains a little pool of rain water, while the grain beneath is drowning.

Such is the situation in every county of Ohio, Indiana and Illinois. The heavy rains of a fortnight in central and northern Indiana and Ohio have flooded everything. The rivers Scioto, Big and Little Miami, Whitewater and the muddy Wabash had been destined by nature to receive the turbulent waters of three states and the output of the heavens of half a month are theirs.

Taking all in all, the rainy season just over has been the most destructive one in 15 years. It has drowned three-fourths of the wheat in the three states; and to personal property and realty in the cities, there can not be placed even an approximate estimate of the damage.

If the present state of weather continues much longer people along the lower Mississippi may expect a repetition of the flood of 1890. At this point the river has risen at the rate of six inches an hour for the past 24 hours, and the prospects are flattering for a continued rise.

General and heavy rains are reported throughout the Ohio valley. The tributaries of the Ohio are pouring out vast torrents of water, and the indications are that a flood stage of water will be reached at this city. The water is creeping up into the houses along Row. The local weather bureau predicts that 60 feet will be the flood limit here if the rains should cease now.

THOUGH UT OHIO.

Great Damage to Wheat and Other Property All Over the State.

COLUMBUS, O., May 2.—Columbus is threatened with a serious flood. The Scioto river is out of its banks and is rising at the rate of four inches an hour. Many factories along the banks of the river have been obliged to close and the electric light works has been obliged to shut down, throwing the city in darkness.

The rain of the past 48 hours has done thousands of dollars damage in northwestern Ohio. Hundreds of acres of wheat are drowned out and the farmers have been kept back from planting their oats, corn and potatoes, which will not be a half crop this year.

The Anglaize river is higher than it has been for years, and it is doing a great amount of damage. It is still raining.

The track of the Baltimore and Ohio company at Clay Lick, near Zanesville, is submerged by water and traffic is interrupted. The rivers are rising at this point at the rate of a foot an hour, and much damage is feared.

It is reported that the tunnel on the Cleveland and Marietta at Cambridge has caved in.

A report is just received here from Dayton that water is running over the levee at Lewistown reservoir and farmers are moving their families and livestock to high ground. Water is in 50 acres of cellars in the residence portion of that city. The river is at the highest point for nine years and rising two inches an hour.

The Miami river and tributaries are at flood height and rising two inches an hour. A sea of water covers the farm lands. Merchants and families in the lower portions of the city are moving perishable goods and supplies out of cellars.

MANY LIVES ENDANGERED.

Springfield Citizens Hemmed In and May Drown Before Being Rescued.

SPRINGFIELD, O., May 2.—This city is suddenly confronted by the awful possibility of a score of lives being drowned by the raging waters in Buck creek, which runs through the northeastern part of the city. The greater part of the police force and the entire patrol force, assisted by many citizens, are straining every effort to rescue the unfortunate who are penned in their houses.

The creek is fed by a number of smaller streams above Lagonda, and began rising rapidly late yesterday afternoon. Almost before the people living in the vicinity knew it they were surrounded by the flood, which at this hour is rising a foot an hour. About 100 acres, from Lagonda avenue to Spring street, and Columbia street to Maple avenue, containing 200 houses, are flooded. Boats and horses are being used to rescue the people.

The Spring street bridge is gone. The electric car powerhouse is flooded and streetcar traffic is entirely stopped. The O. S. Kelly company and P. P. Mast & Company are flooded and the illuminating gas plant, which supplies the city, is threatened. Hundreds are viewing the flood, but it is hoped the water will soon begin to fall.

Mississippi Rapidly Rising.

ST. LOUIS, May 2.—The Mississippi is again on the rampage, and before the apex of the flood is reached it will eclipse all previous floods in height, ruin and devastation. The gauge at this city now marks 81 feet, or within 12 inches of the danger line, and is rising at the rate of an inch per hour.

Reports received from points above here state that the tributaries are rising fast and pouring torrents of water into the Mississippi. This volume will reach here in two or three days and then the flood scenes of previous years will be re-enacted.

The railroads have taken profit from experience and will probably not suffer from the flood. The rainfall during the month of April has exceeded that of any month for 20 years.

Down the river reports show tremendous rainfall and swollen rivers—Memphis, Vicksburg and Natchez will suffer greatly from the flood.

MAY DAY ABROAD.

Riots Take Place at Several Places, but No Serious Injury Done.

LONDON, May 2.—May day was observed with riots.

In Berlin the police dispersed two socialistic gatherings, whose speakers advised the workmen and soldiers not to obey the emperor.

Twelve men were wounded during a fight in Tropan, Austrian Silesia.

Socialistic groups became boisterous in Paris.

There were scenes of violence in Marseilles. A mob attacked the police, who attempted to seize a number of red flags. Hussars were summoned to help the police, and a general fight at close quarters was begun. The rioters defended themselves with clubs and stones. Several policemen were badly cut.

CONDENSED NEWS.

Short Items From Various Parts of the Country.

The Irish home rule bill will reach the committee stage in commons this week.

The peach farmers of Delaware expect the largest crop in the history of the state this year.

People in Colorado are riding free and getting baths thrown in as one result of the railroad rate war.

The governor of Arkansas has appointed H. G. Bunn of Camden chief justice of the supreme court, vice S. R. Cockrell, resigned.

Vice President James Ashley of the Ann Arbor railway claims to have lost $150,000 by the recent slump in the stock of the road.

The sale of the Manhattan Oil company to the Standard, reported Friday, is absolutely denied in toto by the officers of the Manhattan.

Jack Dempsey has accepted the offer of $6,000 made by the Coney Island club for a fight between himself and Billy Smith, champion welterweight.

Comptroller Eckels has appointed James E. Scott of Louisville national bank examiner for the state of Kentucky, vice Jacob M. McKnight, resigned.

The King of Denmark has refused to honor a requisition for Peter Anderson, wanted at Carbon, Wyo., for robbing C. H. Johnson of a $3,000 coin collection.

A South Carolinian wants to be aped consul to the Congo Free State. Twelve representatives of this government—all ever appointed—have died at that post.

All the iron mines in the Ashland (Wis.) districts have closed indefinitely as a result of the fight made by the Carnegie and other mills to force down the price of ore.

E. L. Harper, the Cincinnati bank wrecker, who was released from the Ohio penitentiary when President Harrison's commutation of his sentence went into effect, has returned to Cincinnati and started in the brokerage business.

The exports of specie from the port of New York last week were $4,464,900, of which $3,991,550 were gold and $473,350 silver. Of this amount $3,944,700 gold and $463,200 silver went to Europe, and $46,850 gold and $7,150 silver went to South America.

Prominent Lawyer Dead.

CHARLESTON, May 2.—General B. H. Rutledge, a prominent lawyer, died in this city Sunday, aged 64. He was born in Sumter, S. C., and was educated at Yale. He entered the Confederate army as captain of the Charleston Light dragoons and served through the war as colonel of the Fourth South Carolina volunteers. He was the youngest member of the secession convention and as presidential elector in 1870, and served two terms in the state legislature.

Freight Train in Collision.

BRAZIL, Ind., May 2.—Quite an expensive wreck occurred on the Chicago and Indiana railroad at Piques, north of here. A freight train ran into the caboose of another train, demolishing the caboose and several cars. The train men who happened to be out upon the train were badly shaken up, but not seriously injured.

Three Mines Suspend Work.

BESSEMER, Mich., May 2.—The Colby, Tilden and Palms mines suspended work Saturday for the season. No sales of ore and no prospect of making any living at present prices caused the stoppage. Seven hundred men are out of work. Other large mines will probably follow suit during May, as the iron ore market is in a very unsatisfactory condition.

Warehouse Wrecked.

ST. LOUIS, May 2.—The Mississippi dock warehouse, at the south side of the Eads bridge at East St. Louis, was undermined and wrecked by the high water shortly after 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon. A workman named Cicero Pate was drowned and two others are missing. The damage to merchandise will reach $75,000.

Edwin Booth Improving.

NEW YORK, May 2.—The condition of Edwin Booth is reported to be very encouraging, and his ultimate recovery is confidently expected by his attending physician, Dr. St. Clair Smith.

NIGHT AT THE FAIR.

Electricity Adds to the Beauties of the Columbian Exposition.

SCENE OF DAZZLING SPLENDOR.

The Glories of the Day Rivalled by the Display at Night—President Cleveland Starts on His Return Trip to Washington.

CHICAGO, May 2.—The splendors of the night outshone the glories of the day. The potent factor, electricity, was displayed in all its brilliancy and rivalled for supremacy the one gleam of noonday sun that graced the opening ceremonies. The center of attraction was, as during the day, the administration building and its court of honor, and thither masses flocked in multitudes.

President Cleveland's departure from the administration building shortly after 5 o'clock was the signal for the day's crowd to leave, and the grounds bore a deserted appearance until nearly half past 6. Notwithstanding the chill air which settled over the grounds as the evening grew, people began to gather early, and by the time darkness had encircled the white city a multitude filled the plaza from the administration building to the peristyle.

The first touch of magic given the night settling of the great scene was a fringe of incandescent lights which surmounted the columns of the peristyle running from music hall to the casino. This was followed a moment later by strips of light which sprang to life on all parts of administration building. The entire structure was gilded with seams of light running around the top of the pavilions and to the dome. The effect was one of surpassing beauty, and was greeted with great applause.

Much disappointment was felt later when it was made known that the piece de resistance of the evening's display—the Mac Monnies fountain—would not be illuminated. Its two companions were dark also, an undiscovered break in the wires causing a postponement of the display.

Inside the administration building the scene was one of dazzling splendor, the structure from the rotunda to the peak of the splendid dome being a dream of glittering loveliness. Eight bronze columns from each of which branched 50 lights, gave forth a flood of splendor from the ground floor. A row of light surmounted the gallery two stories above, and before the effect of this display could be lost, a similar circle at the base of the great dome caught the spirit of the brilliant scene and sent the whole against the magnificently decorated dome with an effect never before witnessed in an interior.

Crowds gazed in speechless wonderment upon the view and instinctively fell back into the shelter of the pavilions supporting the dome to escape the bewildering spectacle. The scene, while one of intense brilliancy, had withal a remarkably soft effect.

Manufactures, machinery, mines and mining, transportation and horticulture were also beautifully illuminated. It was 10 o'clock before the currents were shut off and the crowds left for home.

When the presidential party left the exposition they were driven direct to the depot. At 5:15 o'clock the engine whistle blew the signal for departure, the exposition officials, Governor Altgeld and others said goodby, and a parting shout went up from the crowd as the presidential train drew out of the station. Mr. Cleveland, standing on the rear platform, hat in hand, with a smile on his face.

At Grand Crossing the presidential party connected with the second section of the Pennsylvania limited.

Ambassador Bayard was the only member of the presidential party to remain behind.

COFFEE CORNER COLLAPSE.

Kaltenbach Unable to Furnish Sugar and Cream Any Longer.

LONDON, May 2.—The Financial News announces that the gigantic corner in coffee engineered by M. Kaltenbach, the Paris operator, has collapsed, implicating 30 firms in Havre and a number of houses in Antwerp, Rotterdam and Hamburg. The paper adds that for 13 months M. Kaltenbach has alone been carrying 1,000,000 bags of coffee. One-fourth of this was in actual coffee, while the rest was in futures and options.

Recently M. Kaltenbach has been unable to furnish his agents in New York with margins. The coffee held by the agents was forced on the market, causing a heavy fall in prices there. At Havre there was also a decline amounting to 20 francs. Since then prices have recovered one-third under the efforts made to sustain values in order to save the firms involved.

Section Hand Killed.

CINCINNATI, May 2.—Near Erlanger, Ky., an express train on the Cincinnati Southern thundered around a curve and struck a handcar, on which were Patrick Carroll, a section hand, and a companion. The handcar and occupants were hurled into the ditch. Carroll was picked up unconscious and died at the Grand Central depot here, whither he was brought on the train which killed him.

Armenian Christians Released.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—The department of state is informed that on the 2d of April the Sultan of Turkey caused to be liberated nearly all the Armenian Christians who had been arrested within the past three months as being in one way or another connected with the circulation of revolutionary placards, and that the remainder will be released at an early day.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

Fair weather, except showers on the lakes; slightly cooler; westerly winds.

The local correspondent of the Covington Commonwealth says: "Since January 1st, $80,000 worth of real estate has changed ownership in Maysville, and this without any boom. Property for the past ten years has had an easy upward tendency, and desirably located real estate is gobbled up as soon as offered for sale."

If Maysville's big owners of real estate would get together and invest some of their money in manufacturing enterprises it would be a wise and profitable move. What is needed in this city now, and has been needed, is more factories.

The Holcomb law which takes effect upon July 1, provides that every retailer of cigarettes in the State of Ohio shall pay a tax of $100 per annum, and every wholesale dealer a tax of $300 per annum, both collectable at the same time with the real estate taxes. The determined fight in most every State to put a stop to the disgusting and health-destroying habit of cigarette smoking is having its effect. It can be truthfully stated, we believe, that the number of smokers, in Maysville at least, has notably decreased in the past year or so. It has come to that point where a young man of good common sense is ashamed to be seen with a cigarette in his mouth.

PERSONAL.

Miss Mary Eveline Hord, of Richland, is visiting the Misses Tolle, of January street.

Miss Maggie Wheeler has gone to Cincinnati to finish a course of instruction in short hand and type writing.

Mr. Charles Rudy, of Memphis, left for home yesterday. His brothers, Messrs. George and Newton Rudy, accompanied him as far as Cincinnati.

Mr. Walker Baughman left yesterday to spend the summer vacation at Circleville, O. He will return in August and resume his position with the opera house management.

Mrs. L. M. Mills, Miss Sallie Wood, Miss Jessie Judd and Messrs. J. T. Kackley, S. D. Thompson and Jos. Richardson returned Monday from Lexington, where they attended the Y. P. S. C. E. convention.

Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Aitken and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nute, of Flemingsburg, attended the entertainment at the opera house last night. Dr. Aitken and Mr. Nute went on to Cincinnati this morning on business.

Colonel George T. Simonds.

The remains of Colonel George Simonds, who died suddenly last Saturday at Anderson, Ind., will be taken to his old home, Brattleboro, Vt., for interment.

The statement that he committed suicide is probably not correct. An Enquirer special from Anderson says: "He was subject to cramps in the stomach and his death is supposed to have been caused by an overdose of morphine, taken to allay pain."

Deceased had had charge of a hotel at Massillon, O., the past year, but recently left there and went to Anderson, where he became landlord of the Doxy Hotel. He was a member of Maysville Commandery No. 10, K. T.

Internal Revenue Collections.

A COMPLAINT FROM SIXTH WARDERS.

Editor of Bulletin: While we must admit the fact that such things as chronic grumblers do exist, yet a continual nuisance being forced on a community is what makes chronic grumblers. At this present time we citizens of the Sixth ward are imposed upon by horses, cows and hogs running at large. Our fences are smeared with mud from the wallow of the hogs, and our grass, rose bushes and flowers in front yards destroyed by the horses and cows reaching over our fences—destroying everything in reach. This is more than good nature can stand. At the present time we have no protection and can not say that we of the Sixth ward are a part of Maysville but simply Maysville's pasture field. Such things ought not to exist. If we are a part of Maysville let us be protected and governed by her laws. I do hope that proper steps may be taken and that next November the citizens of the Sixth ward may have the privilege of voting on the question whether or not stock shall run at large.

A SUDDEN SUMMONS.

Mrs. I. M. Lane Stricken Down, and Soon Passed Away.

The Community Shocked by the Sad News—The Funeral Arrangements.

The community was shocked last night by the sad news of the death of Mrs. Carrie Lane, wife of Mr. I. M. Lane.

Stricken down at a meeting of Fidelity Division, Sons of Temperance, she was soon a corpse.

Mrs. Lane was one of the most active and earnest members of the Division, and had gone to the meeting apparently in her usual health.

It was about 9 o'clock when she closed a few remarks on some matter before the Division. On taking her seat she complained of feeling sick, and some of her friends assisted her into the ante-room. They had hardly reached the room when she swooned and became unconscious. Dr. Pangburn was present, and he at once realized that she was in a critical condition. She had been seized with a hemorrhage of the stomach.

Dr. Samuels was summoned. Medical assistance was of no avail, however. Mrs. Lane breathed her last in about fifteen minutes. Death had resulted from the hemorrhage, superinduced by heart disease.

While at Bellevue three weeks ago attending a meeting of the Epworth League, Mrs. Lane had a hemorrhage from the stomach, but it was thought she had fully recovered.

Deceased was the eldest daughter of the late Wm. Morris, and was forty-seven years old. Her mother, Mrs. Jane Morris, and husband, Mr. I. M. Lane, survive, and she leaves three daughters, Misses May and Nannie Lane, of this city, and Mrs. Lillie Griffith, of Indianapolis. Three children precede her to the grave.

Deceased was a member of the Third Street M. E. Church and was one of the most faithful and earnest christian women in Maysville.

She was also one of the most active members of Fidelity Division, S. of T. The sympathy of the many who loved and esteemed her goes out to the mother, husband and children in their great loss.

The funeral will occur at the M. E. Church to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Services by the pastor, Rev. D. P. Holt.

Piano Recital.

The recital given yesterday at St. Francis de Sales Academy by Miss Mary Thomas Cox was delightfully entertaining, and the wrap attention given to each number by the large and refined audience showed full appreciation. Miss Cox deserves much praise for her masterly performance, and her success on the occasion reflects great credit on her talented teacher.

Rt. Rev. C. P. Maes, of Covington, who was present, expressed much satisfaction, for his music-loving soul enjoyed to the fullest extent every number of the charming programme. At the close of the entertainment Bishop Maes congratulated Miss Cox on her perfect success, and complimented the gifted Sister under whose careful training she made her recital a source of real pleasure to all present.

The beautiful voice of Miss Katherine Underwood, like a veritable charm, touched the heart's innermost depths, and the selections given by the Visitation Mandolin Club as usual added their share of pleasure to the entertainment.

The good Sisters are to be congratulated on the unique success and finish with which the entertainments given under their auspices are always attended.

At the State convention of Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor in Lexington, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Rev. J. L. Darsie, of Versailles; Secretary, Miss Fredericka Straeffer, of Louisville; Treasurer, William S. Waller, of Louisville; Superintendent of Junior Work, Miss Ella Warren, of Louisville; Vice Presidents (Baptists), Rev. George H. Simmons, Louisville; Methodist, Rev. W. K. Hiner, Louisville; Lutheran, Rev. J. M. Francis, Louisville; Presbyterian, Dr. J. L. Howe, Louisville; Christian, John C. Taylor, Lexington; Congregational, Rev. J. E. Tupper, Williamsburg. The next convention will be held at Hopkinsville.

The box-sheet for "Single Life" was opened at Nelson's this morning. As the sale of tickets has been large, those who wish good seats will do well to have them reserved without loss of time. No one should miss the opportunity of seeing this pretty little comedy, and the dancing of the Minuet which is to be given at the close of the entertainment. Between the acts Miss Lida Berry and Mr. Chas. Rosenau will play some fine selections on the piano and violin. Tickets 25 cents. reserved seats 35 cents.

FARMERS in Central Kentucky report the loss of many sheep. They were sheared too early, and could not stand exposure to the cold weather. Sheep growers in this section should not be in a hurry in shearing, especially in rainy weather.

JAMES WHITCOMB RILEY delighted all at the opera house last night by his charming recitations and dialect stories. He was greeted by a magnificent audience. The musical part of the programme was a most pleasing and enjoyable feature of the entertainment.

MR. JOE R. POWER, who left Flemingsburg and went west a few weeks ago, writes that he is pleasantly located in San Francisco with the firm of LeRoy G. Harvey & Co., real estate, insurance and financial agents. John M. Beck, a member of the firm, is an ex-Kentuckian.

DR. JOHN C. KILLGORE, of New Richmond, O., will locate in Maysville in June and occupy the offices in the Mitchell building on Third, now occupied by Dr. Owens. Dr. Killgore has had fifteen years successful experience as a homeopathic practitioner at New Richmond, and has recently taken a special course in operative surgery in New York. He was born and raised at Fern Leaf, and is a son of the late John Killgore. He was in Maysville yesterday.

THE citizens of Paris closed their places of business during the funeral of ex-Mayor W. P. Chambers, as an expression of the esteem in which they held him. During his two terms as Mayor of that city, the Kentucky Midland Railroad was built, a water works system was put in, electric light plant erected, ice factory built, electric fire alarm placed throughout the city, four new bridges built to connect the suburbs with the city, a $35,000 opera house and a $30,000 city school building erected, streets and sidewalks improved, the city limits extended, and a vast number of other improvements made. He took an active interest in the city's welfare.

LIVELY TIMES ON THE BOSTONA.

The Nightwatchman Attempts to Kill Captain Sam Hamilton—No One Seriously Hurt.

There was an exciting time on the steamer Bostona last Sunday morning.

About 9 o'clock as the steamer was between Sciotoville and Greenup, on her up trip, an attempt was made to kill Captain Sam Hamilton.

The Captain accused Robert McAllister, the nightwatchman, of insulting a lady passenger. This McAllister denied, and cursed the Captain. The latter struck McAllister, knocking him down. When he arose he attempted to strike him again, but tripped over the floor partition between the two cabins. Before he could recover himself, McAllister struck him a terrific blow on the forehead with a pair of brass knuckles, felling him. After the blow had been struck, McAllister drew a revolver and fired one shot at the Captain, but missed his aim.

George Daniel, the colored porter, then grappled with McAllister. Daniel was thrown off and escaped into the pantry just as McAllister fired at him three times. General pandemonium was created aboard the boat, especially among the lady passengers, but the crew disarmed McAllister and turned him over to the Greenup authorities when they arrived at that point. Captain Hamilton was not seriously hurt, although he received a hard blow.

Captain Hamilton had command of the steamer St. Lawrence in the Maysville trade a year or two ago, and his friends in this section will be glad to learn of his fortunate escape. He is a brother of Captain J. H. Hamilton, of the Citizens' Coal Company, of this city.

A Big Blaze at Augusta.

Augusta was visited by a destructive fire Sunday morning. The blaze originated in a livery stable of Wilson & Pompelly on Upper street, and is thought to have been the work of an incendiary. The loss is over $8,000, as follows: Livery stable of Mrs. Chalfant, $2,000; livery stable outfit, including sixteen horses, of Wilson & Pompelly, $3,500; several tenement houses of J. S. Orr, $1,500; hardware store of William McKibben, $600; Taliaferro's coal office, $500; R. L. Gillaspie, on dry goods, $400. Morgan's photograph gallery and Smith's grocery were also damaged. No insurance, except $2,000 on livery stock.

Must Return That Medal.

The Executive Committee of the Kentucky inter-collegiate oratorical contest held a meeting, the object to decide upon the charges of plagiarism, made against J. H. Swango, the winner of the recent contest. After some discussion resolutions were passed sustaining the charges of plagiarism, and asking Mr. Swango to return the medal to the association.

They also added to their by-laws a clause requiring each contestant for future honors to send in a copy of his oration to the President, which shall be turned over to the judges two weeks previous to the contest.

RAILROADS AND EMPLOYEES

Liability of the Former [For Damages Received by the Latter.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—The question of the liability of a railroad corporation to an employee for damages received while in the service of the company is one to be settled, not by the local law in the state wherein the cause of action arose, but by the general law upon the subject. Such was the substance of a decision by the supreme court of the United States yesterday, the opinion being read by Justice Brewer.

The circumstances of the case briefly were these: John Baugh, a fireman in the employ of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad company at Bellaire, O., was injured in a collision between the engine upon which he was employed and a local train. The engine was a "helper," and at the time of the collision was running down hill light. Baugh claimed that the injury received was due to the negligence of the engineer, and brought suit against the company in the county court, whence it was transferred to the United States circuit court for the southern district of Ohio on petition of the railroad company.

Trial of the case resulted in a verdict and judgment for the plaintiff in the sum of $6,700. This result was in accordance with the rule laid down by the supreme court of the state of Ohio governing the determination of suits of this character where negligence of an employee of the company in authority over a fellow employee is alleged.

The railroad appealed to the United States supreme court, and Judge Brewer, after a lengthy review of the principles applicable to the case, said the question upon what is a matter of local and of general law and the extent to which in the latter this court should follow the decision of the state court had often been presented. The unvarying rule is that matters of the latter class this court, while leaning toward an agreement with the rulings of the state courts, always exercises an independent judgment, and so unvarying has been the course of decision in this court that the question of responsibility of a railroad corporation for injuries caused to or by its servants is one of general law.

The incidents of the particular case, present were considered, and Judge Brewer said under the circumstances the court were of the opinion that the engineer was not acting in the capacity of vice principal of the company, but as a fellow-employee of the fireman and that the company was not therefore liable for injury sustained by the latter.

The judgment of the circuit court was reversed and the case remanded for a new trial.

Justice Field dissented, presenting his views in a lengthy opinion couched in most vigorous language. He said that the verdict and judgment in the court below were reached in conformity with the law as settled by the decision of the supreme court of Ohio, and that law was the law to control. Chief Justice Fuller also dissented.

REVOLUTION IN CUBA.

A General Uprising in the Eastern Portion of the Island.

HAVANA, May 2.—Cuba is again in the throes of a revolution. A general uprising has taken place through the eastern portion of the island. The movement which has kept from the public was started near Holguin April 15, when two brothers named Sartorius raised the war cry, and with 20 followers marched out of the little town of Purnio.

They were reinforced the following day by 80 men from the town of Velasco. They continued in the direction of Milas near the north coast, where they were strongly reinforced and where they expect to meet expeditions from the United States.

The Sartorius brothers are young men of good family and were born in Gibara. Their father is a retired captain in the Spanish army. He is a man of wealth and highly respected. The two boys, however, have been prominently identified with the revolutionary movement and would have been under Spanish surveillance for several months.

Reports of uprisings throughout the districts of Manzanillo, Holguin, Guantanamo and Las Lunas are being received. A council of war was called by the captain general on the night of April 27 and the next day he issued an order declaring the province of Santiago de Cuba in a state of siege.

Orders have been issued detaching troops from every available point. They are being sent eastward to check the uprising, which is now becoming general, apparently in keeping with the previous arrangements of the leaders.

The regular troops are marching in the streets of Havana and neighboring cities. Militia have been pressed into service and extra guards placed around all public buildings.

The situation is considered by the authorities and the public press as serious and all available government forces are being centered in the Vuelta Arriba.

Kansas Democratic Squabble.

TOPEKA, Kan., May 2.—The "Senator Martin" Democrats have formulated charges against the "Stewart" Democratic state central committee, which are to be forwarded to the president, alleging that the committee is really a combination of office brokers. It is charged that the committee will recommend no candidate for a federal appointment until a fee of $25 has been deposited.

Four to Hang Together.

LITTLE ROCK, May 2.—In the federal court Saturday, at Fort Smith, Judge Parker sentenced to death Marshall Tucker, John Hicks, John Gourko and Alexander Allen. The execution is to take place July 12. Tucker is a white man, formerly a deputy United States marshal. The others are Cherokee outlaws. Their crimes were committed in the Indian Territory. Allen is only 16 years old.

Good Milk Record.

NOBLESVILLE, Ind., May 2.—Alfred Johnson, who lives in this county, is milking three shorthorn cows that have not failed to give milk at 350 consecutive regular milking hours. This is an unparalleled record.

RIVER NEWS.

The Day Brothers intend putting a boat in the Cincinnati and Vanceburg trade at an early day.

The towboat Leader recently took fifteen rafts from Pittsburgh to Cincinnati—about 2,000,000 pieces of timber.

Captain Phister has fitted up a neat little engine on the wharftow, for use in pumping out. It is a big saving of labor. Captain Phister is ever on the improve.

The Sherley and Stanley, the rival Kanawha packets, were making things lively on the down trip yesterday. The Sherley rounded in here a little in the lead and was getting the best part of the business. Both boats had a big passenger list, the fare having been reduced to $3 for the round trip from Charleston to Cincinnati, including board while at Cincinnati. They were taking passengers from Maysville at 50 cents for the round trip.

Judging from the demand for tickets for Mr. Buckstone's popular comedy, "Single Life," which is to be given at the opera house next to-morrow night, the best amateur talent of our city will be greeted by a large audience. Between the acts some charming musical selections will be rendered by Miss Lida Berry and Mr. Chas. Rosenau. At the conclusion of the performance the Minuet will be danced.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

Any Time is the right time for everybody to drink Hires' Root Beer

A temperance drink.
A home-made drink.
A health-giving drink.
A thirst-quenching drink.
A drink that is popular everywhere.
Delicious, Sparkling, Effervescent.

A 25 cent package makes 5 gallons of this delicious beverage. Don't be deceived if a dealer, for the sake of larger profit, tells you some other kind is "just as good"—it's false. No imitation is as good as the genuine Hires'.

Complete Manhood and how to attain it.

At last a medical work that tells the causes, describes the effects, points the remedy. This is scientifically the most valuable, artistically the most beautiful, medical book that has appeared for years; 96 pages, every page bearing a half-tone illustration in tint. Some of the subjects treated are Nervous Debility, Impotency, Sterility, Development, Varicocele, The Husband, Those intending Marriage, etc. Every man who would know the grand truths, the plain facts, the old secrets, and the new discoveries of medical science as applied to married life, who would atone for past follies and avoid future pitfalls, should write for this wonderful little book. It will be sent free, under seal. Address the publishers, Erie Medical Co., Buffalo, N. Y.
